Conflicts of Interest Policy

Services displayed on the website are provided by Fiper.me.

Fiper Markets LLC is a registered company in the (TFIZ) as a Forex Brokerage Firm.

TFZ Number: TFZ/201223/01 - Company ID Number: 400378916.

Introduction

It is important to identify and effectively manage conflicts of interest which arise or may arise while providing services and carrying out activities, as such situations may lead to a material risk of damage to a client's interests.

This document outlines Fiper.me's policy for identifying, managing, and mitigating conflicts of interest in compliance with applicable laws and internal governance standards.

The policy and the register of conflicts of interest are reviewed annually to ensure they remain effective and proportionate to the scale and complexity of our business.

If at any time you are in doubt about how to act in a situation where a conflict of interest arises, you should contact the Compliance Officer.

Definition and Scope

A conflict of interest may arise when the interests of Fiper.me, including its managers, employees, or persons linked to the firm, conflict directly or indirectly with the interests of a client or between clients.

Conflicts of interest can arise in various ways, such as when Fiper.me:

- Might make a financial gain or avoid a financial loss at the expense of a client.
- Has an interest in the outcome of a service that differs from that of a client.
- Has an incentive to favor one client over another.
- Receives inducements or benefits that could impair objectivity.

Prevention and Management

Fiper.me identifies, prevents, and manages conflicts through:

- Segregation of duties and establishment of information barriers (“Chinese Walls”).
- Supervision by senior management and the Compliance Officer.
- Disclosure of conflicts when avoidance is not possible.
- Declining or refraining from providing services when conflicts cannot be effectively managed.

Employees must act with integrity, ensuring fairness and transparency when dealing with clients.

Inducements, Gifts, and Hospitality

All employees are prohibited from offering or accepting gifts or inducements that could influence business decisions or create the perception of bias.

Records of all gifts and hospitality are maintained by the Compliance Officer, and any invitations that could be perceived as business inducements must be declined.

Personal Account Dealing

Employees are permitted to trade personally only if such trading does not conflict with client interests, breach regulations, or misuse confidential information.

Pre-deal approval from the Compliance Officer is required, valid for 24 hours only.

External Activities

No employee may engage in external occupations or hold directorships without written approval from the Company.

Disclosure and Record Keeping

Fiper.me maintains a written record of all identified or potential conflicts of interest for a minimum period in compliance with applicable laws.

Disclosure to clients is made in writing when necessary to allow them to make informed decisions.

Remuneration and Oversight

Staff remuneration is structured to avoid conflicts between personal gain and client interests.

Supervisory oversight ensures that all operations are conducted with fairness and integrity.

Reporting

All employees must immediately report any identified or suspected conflicts of interest to the Compliance Officer via compliance@fiper.me.

Conclusion:

Fiper Markets LLC is committed to maintaining a transparent, fair, and ethical environment in all dealings with clients, partners, and counterparties. The prevention and management of conflicts of interest form a core component of our compliance and governance framework.